Ethan Klussman Named Liberty Township Fire Chief

The Liberty Township Trustees have appointed Ethan Klussman as the new Liberty Township Fire Chief. Klussman will become only the 2nd full-time Fire Chief in Liberty Township's history. Klussman is a 21-year veteran of the fire service, working with a combination department in the City of Kettering since 1996. He rose through the ranks from firefighter/paramedic to Fire Captain and most recently Battalion Chief. Klussman is replacing Paul Stumpf who announced his 2017 retirement last year after serving the Liberty Township community for 45 years.
