Lakota Local Schools Master Facilities Presentation: October 19

Join leaders from Lakota Local Schools to learn more about the district's Master Facilities process on Wednesday, October 19 at 5 p.m. at the Liberty Township Administration Building (5021 Winners Circle Drive). Superintendent Matt Miller, Treasurer Adam Zink and Chief Operating Officer Chris Passarge will be on hand to share more information about the process, the options members of Lakota's board of education are considering and potential funding. Attendees will also have an opportunity to share feedback on each of the plans. The Board plans to select a final grade configuration in November. Learn more here.

Leaf Collection in Liberty Township

As a reminder, there is no leaf collection policy in Liberty Township. Leaves raked onto the curb and not cleaned up can result in environmental problems such as clogged storm drains and drainage ditches. Please be responsible for the leaves that fall onto your property by mowing them or disposing of them in yard bags. Thank you for your assistance!
